UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

MARCEL DARON KING,

Defendant.

) NO. 10-CR-455 WHA

) SECOND STIPULATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~
) ORDER MODIFYING BRIEFING SCHEDULE
) AND REINSTATING DATE OF NOVEMBER 1,
) 2016 STATUS HEARING

) Honorable William Alsup

On October 25, 2016, the parties filed a stipulation requesting that the scheduled status conference set for November 1, 2016, be continued to December 13, 2016, at 2:00 p.m. [Dkt. No. 253.] The parties also stipulated and jointly requested that the previously agreed briefing schedule for opening briefs be adjusted by one day, so that the government would file its opening brief by October 28, 2016, and the defense would file its opening brief by November 18, 2016. Id.

On October 28, 2016, the Court granted the parties' request—it continued the status hearing to December 13, 2016 at 2:00 p.m. and modified the briefing schedule as requested. [Dkt. No. 255.]

The parties hereby request that the Court put the matter back on the calendar on November 1, 2016 at 2:00 p.m. The parties make this request because they are in disagreement over the use and potential admission of a document recently received by the government and would like to appear before the Court to address the issue.

The parties further request that the briefing schedule be further modified so that the government would file its brief (both the Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and accompanying brief) on October 31, 2016, and the defense would file its Proposed Findings of Fact responding to the government's proposed findings of fact as well as its accompanying brief on November 21, 2016. The government's deadline to file its reply brief shall remain as originally scheduled on December 8, 2016.

SO STIPULATED.
